PROCEDURE ON FAILURE TO OBEY CITATION AND NOTICE

The court may order an issuance of a bench warrant for the arrest of any defendant who has failed to appear before the court, either in person or by a lawyer, in answer to a citation and notice, or the order of the court, upon which the defendant has promised in writing to appear, or of which the defendant has been served with or otherwise received notice to appear, if the sentence for the offense charged may include confinement in jail.

- (a) Warrant Costs. The maximum warrant preparation fee permitted under RCW 10.01.160 shall be assessed whenever the court orders a warrant based upon a defendant's failure to appear for any mandatory court appearance on a jailable offense. The fee shall include any costs for service of the warrant and may be waived only if the defendant is later acquitted.
- (b) Quashing Warrants. The court, in its discretion, may quash a failure to appear warrant under the following circumstances:
  - (1) Unless specifically prohibited by the court at the time the warrant was ordered, the defendant may personally appear at the clerk's office and pay the amount of the warrant fee in cash. The defendant shall then personally sign a promise to appear at a hearing no later than the next available judicial day. The court will determine the appropriate conditions for the defendant's continued release at that hearing which may include a requirement that the defendant be detained in lieu of bail; or (e)(2)(ii) Failure of a party to confirm the jury trial as required shall cause the case to be stricken as a jury trial.

(g) Scheduled and confirmed jury trials shall proceed and be called according to the priority of speedy trial limits.
